

Smoke signals

Day began at 5.55am for some with breakfast at 6

Accommodated at St. Matthews Collegiate (girls school). Travelling by Transit coach to the pool. Drivers become team support much appreciated.

Swimmers arrived at the pool with an air of expectation and after a great stretching routine got into joint warm up routine.

The formalities with local dignitaries present included Isaac Foote a native of the Waiarapa Tribe and our team captain taking the swimmers oath.

1st 100 fly 59.07
Anchor in the relay

Meet 2: Shelby Wilson: 3rd 200 Back 2.22.98
3rd 400 free 4.33.10

Won bk skins

Led out 3rd place relay

Skins Winners:

Shaquile 50 breast

Shelby 50 back

Aaryn 50 back

Although skins carry zero points the swimmers used these events as a chance to solidify the best team of the day. A solid effort by all concerned.

Building on a solid performance and 2nd place at the end of meet 1, a tactical error by the Concordes and overall commitment by the braves and squaws under the leadership of Big Chief Nui a tia came through to take the overall lead. Now going into meet 3 with an 11 point lead.

A final word to Isaac Foote named as "Dick of the Day" for losing his pants

Question for anyone to answer " who knows where the Coke went?"

Clue 1 : Look in Coach Dave's luggage

Stay tune for more of the missing coke
