

The Daily Smurf

News from the Smurf Swim Team 23 January

First two meets over and Team Smurf sits comfortably second on the ladder, it was a closely fought battle with the Red Indians but Smurf power held on in the end. Congratulations to the Condorks (is that how you spell it?) for their two wins but be warned Wheeler & Co we are coming for you!!!!

Our Swimmers of the day were Mitchell Donaldson who scored 20 of our 97 points in the morning meet and Sam Robinson who dominated the 800 Free in the afternoon.

Our team Captains are Renee "Poppa Smurf" Kapa and Alex "Smurfette" Laidlaw. These two act as a link between the Staff and the team and are starting to stretch their leadership legs.

Smurfy moments from today

- Bianca the super spy and side kick Natalie P slid onto the Red Indians bus but were spotted and returned safe in the knowledge that the Redskins are spending most of their energy devising the MOST annoying chant in the world EVER
- In a moment of pure compassion coach Andrew gave the Indians a decent cheer to make them feel better.
- Coach Dan brought out the big stick in the break today and the coaching staff were very pleased with the resulting lift in tempo, attitude and application.

Tomorrow : Look out for the Smurfs to pull together over the 2 Taupo Meets PLUS news of an alarming development in inter team fraternization.....What DO you get when you cross a Smurf with a Red Indian
