Who was the Grumpy Smurf ??

Swim Smurf Swim

On the Eve of Meet 3 and 4 Team Smurf take an early night in the subdued atmosphere of the Turangi Motor Camp. The Team meeting in the still night air only briefly interrupted by Coach Dan removing a cell phone from some hot little blue smurf hands (remains nameless).

We are confident, relaxed and focused on our swims for Saturday.

Birthday Smurf !! Happy Birthday for Saturday Super Spy Smurf Bianca

Our time on the road is made easier by many people around us and helping us on our way. Today we met Earl (Hi my name is...) the photographer, Ngaire the cook, Sam the security guard and we are pretty sure Santa is staying here too (Mums & Dads ask your kids about these characters!!)

Taryn M enjoys an ice pack after competing so today brought a 3 kilo bag.....to take on the bus!

A trip to the lake gave Team Smurf a chance to get team chants developed, practiced and implemented for the dining room

Great News Mums, one of the boys showed the ultimate commitment to team smurf today and got this tattoo.
GO SMURFS GO
