

The Daily Smurf

News from the Smurf Swim Team
27th January

Once in 10,000 years

the Smurf has a chance to rise up and be noticed, a chance to say ENOUGH IS ENOUGH, a chance to ACT and ensure that the Smurf can stand proud amongst the Pantheon of Mythic Creatures for all time

NOW IS THAT TIME; YOU ARE THAT SMURF

The Mighty Smurf Swim Team won both the third and fourth meets. We are on a winning streak; the Red Indians and Conchords have tasted the bitter juice from the Smurfberry of defeat and found it unpleasant; they will not be keen to taste it for a third time.

This is the dawning of the age of the Smurf; we are destined to win the final two meets and with them the overall series. The Smurf shall be victorious and ALL shall bow down before us in the absolute knowledge that they have been truly defeated.

Once in 10,000 Years.....YOU are that Smurf.
