

The Daily Smurf

News from the Smurf Swim Team

After a valiant battle Team Smurf could not overcome the Concords and we graciously concede. Team Smurf extends our thanks to the Red Indians and Concords; without competition we cannot learn. But with our thanks, admiration and lets face it envy, we also warn the other teams-next time you face a Smurf beware - we will be better swimmers than we are now!

Smurfs of the Day

Alex "Smiley" Smurf "Laidlaw 200 fly and Agnes "Quiet Riot" Cheung 400 Free.

Could this be Concord congratulating a Red Indian on a close race

A thought

The less I spoke the more I listened, the more I listened the more I learned the more I learned the less I spoke.

Big Chief Kicking Door of the Indians went fishing in Stratford, the night was still, conditions perfect and despite using his best skill the great hunter came away empty handed.

Visiting Stratford with Clive "Silver Fox" Wheeler is like visiting Sicily with the Godfather-doors mysteriously open and peasants rush up to kiss his ring.